

Calculate the angular velocity needed on wheel A in order to make wheel B achieve an angular velocity of 25 rad/s. Assume the radius of A is 30 cm and the radius of B is 50 cm. The wheels are in contact with each other and do not slip.